

Birmingham, Alabama Become Greek for the weekend at the 52nd Annual Greek Festival on October 2-4, 2025 from 10:30am-9:30pm. The Greek Festival, is Birmingham's oldest and most anticipated cultural event that offers an abundance of delicious Greek cuisine. The festival has been an act of love from Birmingham's Greek community to the city going back four generations. Enjoy delicious Greek cuisine prepared by the parishioners of the community and served by them during the Greek Festival weekend.

Outside tented seating for dining will be available with free admission. Food plates are individually priced and the Greek pastries will be pre-packaged and sold in the food lines. Coca Cola products will be available along with Greek beer and wines. Be sure to stroll through The Greek Market Place which has Mediterranean and Orthodox Christian souvenirs. Free parking is located in the former Liberty National parking building located one block away on 20th Street (Richard Arrington Blvd) between 3rd and 4th Avenue.

Since 1972, the Greek Festival has greatly impacted many charitable organizations by donating a portion of the festival proceeds which is over 3 million to local and national charities. In recent years the charities have included: Magic Moments, The Exceptional Foundation, The Ronald McDonald House, the Fire House Shelter, Alzheimer's of Central Alabama, Pathways, Family Connection, The Wellhouse, Jimmie Hale Mission, Safe House, Alabama Kidney Foundation, MS Society, The Greater Birmingham Ministries, Diakonia Retreat Center, Children's of Alabama, Folds of Honor, The Bell Center for Early Intervention Programs, First Light, Youth Towers, Saint Herman of Alaska Orthodox Christian Mission in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, AHEPA 3 Charities, and Magic City Harvest. The 2025 Festival charity beneficiaries will be announced soon.

The Holy Trinity - Holy Cross Greek Orthodox parish was chartered in 1906, and is the 4th oldest Greek Orthodox parish in the Southeast. The beautiful and inspiring Byzantine interior of the basilica enhances the Orthodox Christian's worship of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Self guided tours will be available during the three day festival and parishioners will be available to answer any questions.

The prior Greek Festival has been an overwhelming success serving over 30,000 festival goers over the 3 day festival. This year we are offering Greek Festival sponsorship plans that continue to provide great marketing and branding exposure for sponsors and we look forward to your participation. Please take a moment to look through the options and contact us anytime with questions. Thank you again for your past participation and future consideration in the Greek Festival sponsorship program.
